

How can we let companies such as Clear Channel and individuals such as Rupert Murdoch own so much of the media that we are exposed to daily? Can we change ownership of our media outlets to a much lower number of outlets so the general public isn't bombarded with the political views of Clear Channel and Murdoch?